TALES OF THE DISTRICT

Life in the Nation's Capital in a Time of Terror

A new novel by author, civil liberties lawyer, Rachel King

“Tales of the District” is a captivating, entertaining story of three endearing characters confronting the fears and challenges of life in post-September 11 Washington. The action runs from the fictitious Tulip Lane Cohousing community (“TLC”) in Takoma Park, Md., to protest rallies in D.C. streets, to the corridors of power on Capitol Hill. “Tales” offers new perspectives on friendship, freedom, social taboos, politics, prejudice, love and hate. It may change how you think about relationships, family and community. You just may discover this moving story is really about you. [more...]
